Dress Standards

We trust you, young men, so we're not going to spell out every nuance of dress. The standard and invitation have already been given in the "For Strength of Youth", which comes from inspired prophets and apostles, who speak for the Lord Jesus Christ. Here is the standard to which you will be expected to abide by while at camp:

Treat your body—and others' bodies—with respect. As you make decisions about your clothing, hairstyle, and appearance, ask yourself, "Am I honoring my body as a sacred gift from God?" Heavenly Father wants us to see each other for who we really are: not just physical bodies but His beloved children with a divine destiny. Avoid styles that emphasize or draw inappropriate attention to your physical body, instead of who you are as a child of God with an eternal future. Let moral cleanliness and love for God guide your choices.
